

PROPERTY OF THE DAY: MACAULAY ROAD, CLAPHAM

Feast your eyes on this brand new townhouse

BY CATRIONA GRAY 2 NOVEMBER 2015

THE PROPERTY: A brand-new, thoughtfully designed townhouse, with large windows that flood the interiors with natural light and plenty of lateral space.

THE LOCATION: Situated on a quiet residential road to the north of Clapham Common, both the common and Battersea Park are a short stroll away.

THE INTERIOR: They're certainly generous, with six/seven bedrooms and a huge, open-plan living area. Wood floors and panelling are a stylish touch, as are the copper pendant lights that illuminate the breakfast bar.

WHY WE LOVE IT: The 107 square foot garden has been landscaped so that it looks as modern as the house.

BUY IT NOW: £6,500,000, at Savills.
